

opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Mr. Clerk. Excuse me, Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a call of the house and accept call-in votes.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The house is under call. All unexcused members return to the floor. All unauthorized members leave the floor, and the Chair of the Judiciary Committee has indicated he will accept call-in votes on the vote to adopt the committee amendments. The house is under call. Members, please return to the Chamber. Senator Ashford, Senator Avery, Senator Beutler, Senator Lynch, Senator Matzke, Senator Chambers, please check in. Senator Byars.

CLERK: Senator Elmer voting...was that a yes, Senator? A yes, thank you. Senator Robak voting yes. Senator Schellpeper voting yes. Senator Fisher voting yes. Senator Hartnett voting yes. Senator Byars voting yes.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of committee amendments.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Committee amendments are adopted, the call is raised. Anything further on the bill. Okay, Senator Hudkins, would you like to open on the bill first, and then we will consider amendments.

SENATOR HUDKINS: On the bill, I am just going to repeat probably some of what I have said for the benefit of those that came in and are now rapidly leaving. LB 907 expands the scope of a statute governing false reporting. Last year a constituent of mine called my office and was quite upset at what she felt was an abuse of government by citizens. The constituent and her husband had been investigated and exonerated by three different governmental employees, departments, excuse me, three different governmental departments, based upon complaints of a fired
